Enrique Ramírez, the visionary founder of face to face NYC, a renowned men's day spa in New York City, has revolutionized the traditional notion of the spa experience.

With an unwavering commitment to wellness and inclusivity, Ramírez has successfully created an oasis of relaxation primarily tailored for men while warmly embracing individuals seeking self-pampering. As face to face nyc celebrates its 19th anniversary, Ramírez embarks on a bold new expansion into the City of Angels, reflecting his dedication to exceptional care and crafting an inclusive space for rejuvenation and wellness.

After being asked for years to open up a location on the West Coast, Ramirez has finally expanded his brand to Los Angeles. The new location continues to cater to the demands of its mostly-male clientele, offering ultra-personalized services for all those willing to pamper themselves. The New York- and California-licensed esthetician and massage therapist has always focused on redefining beauty and skin care services for men, pioneering services such as anal bleaching before they became mainstream.

Unparalleled Bespoke Services and Transformative Power of Spa Treatments

At the heart of face to face nyc's meteoric rise over the last two decades lies Enrique Ramírez's visionary spirit and commitment to shattering beauty stereotypes. Ramírez firmly believes in the transformative power of spa treatments to enhance self-confidence and health. His meticulous attention to detail on behalf of his clients has resulted in bespoke skincare and beauty services that create a haven of relaxation. By tailoring experiences to individual needs, face to face nyc has earned a reputation for providing exceptional care.

Expansion into Los Angeles

As face to face nyc commemorates nearly 20 years in business, Enrique Ramírez and his unparalleled team of estheticians and massage therapists embark on an extraordinary journey by expanding their spa to the sun-kissed city of Los Angeles. This expansion reflects Ramírez's dedication to offering exceptional care for all individuals seeking rejuvenation and wellness, no matter where they call their home.

Innovative Offerings and Recognition

In addition to the spa's long list of popular skincare, hair removal, and body treatments, including its Micro Groovy Peel, Y-Chromosome, and Super O2 facials, microneedling, peels, massages, body sugaring, waxing and more, it will now also introduce the latest in shockwave therapy for men suffering from mild to medium erectile dysfunction. Ramírez's face to face nyc day spa also provides a non-laser alternative to various skin imperfections such as broken capillaries, sunspots and moles, with its Skin Classic machine. These offerings demonstrate his dedication to staying at the forefront of the industry for many years.
